Thank you for your interest in Spiritual Direction through Living Water. This ministry exists to help people creatively address the complex and sometimes painful issues of life using powerful spiritual resources.

The purpose of this Christian, non-denominational ministry is to come along side of men and women of God who want to deal with issues from a holistic perspective that includes their faith.

Spiritual Direction helps position people for insight and receptivity to the processes which God is using to make them more like Christ. Areas of strength are identified and celebrated. Using a variety of spiritual exercises, individuals are assisted to experience Christ's healing presence and unconditional love in places where growth is blocked, emotional wounds hinder, and wholeness is not yet experienced. Utilizing Scripture, and the faith resources developed throughout the church's history, those under Direction are provided real transformation through the healing presence and power of the Triune God.

I offer support to pastors, church leaders, individuals, couples and teams. My expertise includes personality theory and temperament types, spiritual gifts discovery, marriage and family issues, premarital and wedding planning, team building, congregational renewal, leadership development and coaching. For more information, please view our web site. I am certified to administer and interpret the Myers Briggs Type Indicator, and the Taylor Johnson Temperament Analysis.

I grew up in a pastoral family and have been a pastor for nearly thirty years. My education includes Syracuse University, Duke University Divinity School and Asbury Theological Seminary where I earned a Doctor of Ministry in Spiritual Formation. I am the author of three books: Experiments in Prayer: Personality Influenced Prayer Styles; Gifts We Bring to Honor the King and Songs for A Savior. My prayerful intent is to be a Christ-centered, Biblically-grounded, Spirit-anointed leader. I have experienced the desert times as well as the delights of ministry and I know how to help people cope with the challenges of living a faithful life.

1. Fee: The Spiritual Direction fee per 50 minute session will be negotiated at our first session (or before if you wish). Sessions that extend beyond the 50 minute time are negotiable and will be billed accordingly. Unless negotiated differently, payments are due at the end of each session and are payable to Dr. David M. Oliver. We will likely have two sessions per month for the first three months. We will discuss this at our first session. At the end of three months, we will evaluate what works best for you.
2. Appointment Changes: When times have been reserved for you it will be appreciated if you will give 24 hours notice if you need to reschedule. You may leave a message at (330) 497-8109. If you wish, please indicate in general what other times are good for you. Without proper notice, scheduled time will be lost and a $20.00 “broken appointment fee” will be collected at the next session. Let us make our time together a priority, but if important issues necessitate us rescheduling I will work with you and will appreciate the same courtesy when I have emergencies.
3. Problems: If I ever say anything that upsets you or doesn't feel right, please bring it to my attention. Honesty and trust are critical for our relationship to grow. I value creating a safe and open place for you to come with confidence. Our spiritual direction relationship is not therapy or psychological counseling. If there is a question about this relationship, please bring it to my attention immediately.
4. Please complete the Living Water Spiritual Direction Life Script prior to our first session. Make a copy for your records and email a copy to me at davidmoliver@att.net, preferably a week before the first session.

I am honored to have the opportunity to be your Spiritual Director. I look forward to our sessions. Let's pray for God to use this time powerfully.

Please give me a call to set up an appointment.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. David M. Oliver
